Music in the Meadow - The Akros Percussive Collective

Part of a collaboration with Alaskan composer John Luther Adams – Desert, Forest, Tundra will be performed by the Akros Percussion Collective, a group of outstanding percussionists from around Northeast Ohio under the direction of Gustavo Aguilar. Aguilar is known locally for his widely acclaimed work as music director with David Shimotakahara's GroundWorks Dancetheater. The Akros Percussion Collective's unique style of percussion combines inventive rhythms, rare instruments, and brilliant noise-melodies presented in a natural landscape that may change the listener's perceptions. Grab a blanket and a picnic dinner, and bring your family to hear FREE music in the park! The celebration begins with lawn games and activities for families and friends. Bring a Frisbee or a kite! Presented by CVNP and CVNPA with promotional support by WKSU 89.7 FM. Alcohol is prohibited. Activities begin at 5:30 p.m. Concert begins at 6:30. Howe Meadow. Rain location is Happy Days Visitor Center.
